

Datasite for NPL

Optimize and accelerate the NPL process with innovation and technology.

Execute your NPL deals faster than ever

- Manage massive quantities of sensitive data
- Protect sensitive loan-related GDPR information
- Run a faster non-performing loans (NPL) process

Organize NPL files easily

- Share the sample files easily, and keep the rest of the loan files separate
- Rename and move your files with our bulk editing Excel tool
- Multi-language files? No problem. Preview a translation in 20+ languages
- Optical Character Recognition renders your files searchable and redactable – even files scanned from paper

Share a sample of the loan files with potential bidders via the index; save the other files in the sandbox until they are needed.

Truncated file names? Rename, copy, and move thousands of files at once with Excel import editing tool.

Sort through and search massive amounts of data with OCR. 20+ languages are automatically detected and optimized for search.

Don't speak the language? Get a translated preview.

Eliminate redaction roadblocks

- Achieve 80% time savings with redaction AI
- Let AI auto-detect and redact 100+ types of personal data governed by privacy laws
- Choose the redaction tool built using the feedback and experience of real dealmakers, who know exactly what is needed to stay compliant

Set permissions down to the document level, apply watermarks, and customize download access. Lots of bidders? No problem. Click and copy roles, then make permission tweaks as needed.

Trust the data room vendor with best-in-class security certifications.

Redact key terms and data types automatically across the project. When the time comes, unredact in minutes.

Prepare and execute your NPL process faster

- Complete vendor due diligence (VDD) faster and more easily
- Quickly review loan files to establish and confirm asset values
- Reach out potential bidders in a fraction of the time with bulk teasers
- Whether it's your first NPL or your thousandth, lean on the experienced, dedicated, multilingual support team. They've done this before and can share best practices, tips, and tricks – 24/7

Send hundreds of customized teasers in seconds with bulk email in Datasite Outreach™.

Stay updated on progress with trackers. Flag high priority items and monitor VDD progress.

Service is here for you 24/7 to help you set up your data room, train your team, and answer your questions.
