Boost transparency, minimize risks

Use the findings tool to simplify acquisition due diligence. Keep all assessed deal risks in one place and format - with each one linked to its underlying documents. Highlight issues in real time, track by priority, and take prompt action.

Get straight answers
Equip your team with a concise, standardized format to report findings. No more emails to decipher or points to draw out. Keep your running list in one place and filter by what matters most to you.

Spotlight your biggest concerns
Uncover issues as they arise in real time on our dashboard. Review by status and priority. Jump directly to the details. Avoid escalation and omission errors.

Establish clear documentation
Create your findings directly from underlying documents, and link them together to ensure absolute clarity. Drill down for deeper review.

Stay in control
Use feature permissions to control who can see the findings tab and relevant dashboard. Rely on our ironclad security to do the rest.
